

Your account is now set up for Investor access. To access your account you will need to do the following:

First you have to set your Internet browser up to allow it to communicate with Raymond James

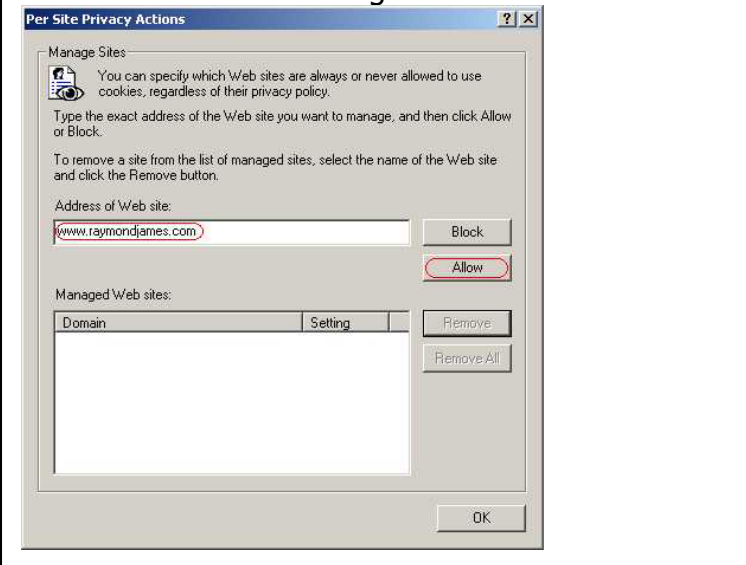

- Open an internet explorer window
- Click Tools at the top and then Internet Options

- Click the Privacy tab at the top
- Click the Edit button at the bottom

- Type www.raymondjames.com and click the Allow button to the right

- Click Ok to close the current window and Ok again to close the initial window

Go to: www.whitlockfinancial.com

- 3/4 the way down the main page "click here to view your account online"(Raymond James)
- This will bring you to a sign on screen.

Type your login:

Type your password:

Click on the login button, you will be able to change your password to whatever you choose at this point.

If you have any questions or concerns please give me a call.

Thank you,